Today at Holy Trinity
April 14, 2024
Sunday of St. John Climacus

- ◆ 8:15 AM Orthros
- ◆ 9:15 AM Chrismation
- ◆ 9:30 AM Divine Liturgy
- ◆ 11:45AM GOYA Officer Elections

Today we Commemorate

- Aristarchus, Pudens, Trophimus the Apostles of the 70
- Thomais the Martyr of Alexandria
- Ardalion the Actor and Martyr
- Demetrios the New-Martyr of Arcadia

VISITORS

We welcome you to worship with us today! Whether you are an Orthodox Christian, or this is your first visit to an Orthodox Church, we are pleased to have you with us. A member of our Welcome Team can assist you and provide you with information about our Cathedral. Please note that food or drink is not permitted in the sanctuary.

Holy Communion in the Orthodox Christian Church is reserved for baptized/chrismated Orthodox Christians who, have properly prepared themselves to receive the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. We receive frequently, but not casually.

All are welcome to come forward at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy to receive the Antidoron, which is blessed bread.

Ἀπολυτίκιον Ἀναστάσιμον. ᾠχος δ΄.

Τὸ φαιδρὸν τῆς ἀναστάσεως κήρυγμα, ἐκ τοῦ Ἀγγέλου μαθοῦσαι αἱ τοῦ Κυρίου Μαθήτριαι, καὶ τὴν προγονικὴν ἀπόφασιν ἀπορρίψασαι, τοῖς Ἀποστόλοις καυχώμεναι ἔλεγον· Ἐσκύλευται ὁ θάνατος, ἠγέρθη Χριστὸς ὁ Θεός, δωρούμενος τῷ κόσμῳ τὸ μέγα ἔλεος.

Entrance Hymn

Come, let us worship and bow down before Christ. Save us, O Son of God, risen from the dead. We sing to You, Alleluia.

Resurrectional Apolytikion (green hymnal page 97)

The women disciples of the Lord, having learned from the Angel the joyous news of the Resurrection and having rejected the ancestral decision, then told the apostles elatedly: Death has been stripped of his power, Christ God has risen, granting to the world His great mercy.

For the Devout Man. Mode pl. 4.

With the rivers of your tears you made the barren desert bloom; and with your sighs from deep within, you made your labors bear their fruits a hundredfold; and you became a star, illuminating the world by your miracles, O John, our devout father. Intercede with Christ our God, for the salvation of our souls.

Church Hymn (green hymnal page 109)

Blessed are You, O Christ our God; You made the fishermen all-wise by sending down upon them the Holy Spirit, And through them You drew the world into Your net. Glory to You Who love mankind.

Kontakion Mode 4

O Champion General, I your City now inscribe to you Triumphant anthems as the tokens of my gratitude, Being rescued from the terrors, O Theotokos. Inasmuch as you have power unassailable, From all kinds of perils free me, so that unto you I may cry aloud: Rejoice, O unwedded Bride.

EPISTLE READING: Hebrews 6:13-20

BRETHREN, when God made a promise to Abraham, since he had no one greater by whom to swear, he swore to himself, saying, "Surely I will bless you and multiply you." And thus Abraham, having patiently endured, obtained the promise. Men indeed swear by a greater than themselves, and in all their disputes an oath is final for confirmation. So when God desired to show more convincingly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable character of his purpose, he interposed with an oath, so that through two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible that God should prove false, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to seize the hope set before us. We have this as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters into the inner shrine behind the curtain, where Jesus has gone as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

GOSPEL READING: The Gospel According to Mark 9:17-31

At that time, a man came to Jesus kneeling and saying: "Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a dumb spirit; and wherever it seizes him it dashes him down; and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid; and I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they were not able." And he answered them, "O faithless generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him to me." And they brought the boy to him; and when the spirit saw him, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth. And Jesus asked his father, "How long has he had this?" And he said, "From childhood. And it has often cast him into the fire and into the water, to destroy him; but if you can do anything, have pity on us and help us." And Jesus said to him, "If you can! All things are possible to him who believes." Immediately the father of the child cried out and said, "I believe; help my unbelief!" And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You dumb and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again." And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse; so that most of them said, "He is dead." But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose. And when he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?" And he said to them, "This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer and fasting." They went on from there and passed through Galilee. And he would not have any one know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of man will be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him; and when he is killed, after three days he will rise."

to Give

Place the Lenten items in the Saint Basil Food Pantry yellow or black bin on your way in- to the Sanctuary for the Divine Services.

The pantry is depleted after each weekly distribution. Whatever you can give will be extremely helpful. In addition, you may also make a monetary contribution if that is your preference and the Saint Basil Food Pantry team will shop for you! You can do so by using Realm if you scan QR code above. If by check, please add “Saint Basil Food Pantry” to the memo line.

As always, thank you for your love, support, and generosity! Together we are making a difference, and your support is invaluable and your love helps to further drive our mission forward!

Key Highlight: The distribution of food and personal hygiene products for the month of March totaled 170 families increasing the overall amount of people reached to more than 4,400 since the launch of the food pantry!

“They have distributed freely, they have given to the poor, their righteousness endures forever.” ~ Psalm 112:9
