Ἀπολυτίκιον Ἀναστάσιμον. Ἦχος πλ. α'. Ἀυτόμελον.

Τὸν συνάναρχον Λόγον Πατρὶ καὶ Πνεύματι, τὸν ἐκ Παρθένου τεχθέντα εἰς σωτηρίαν ἡμῶν, ἀνυμνήσωμεν πιστοὶ καὶ προσκυνήσωμεν· ὅτι ἠυδόκησε σαρκί, ἀνελθεῖν ἐν τῷ Σταυρῷ, καὶ θάνατον ὑπομεῖναι, καὶ ἐγείραι τοὺς τεθνεώτας, ἐν τῇ ἐνδόξῳ ἀναστάσει αὐτοῦ.

Entrance Hymn

Come, let us worship and bow down before Christ. Save us, O Son of God, risen from the dead. We sing to You, Alleluia.

Resurrectional Apolytikion (green hymnal page 99)

Let us the faithful give praise and worship to the Logos, coeternal with the Father and the Spirit, born of the Virgin for our salvation; for of His own good will He consented to ascend the cross in the flesh and endured death and raised the dead by His glorious resurrection.

For the Devout Man. Mode pl. 4.

In you, O Mother, is preserved undistorted what was made in the image of God; for taking up the cross, you followed Christ and by example taught, that we should overlook the flesh, since it passes away, and instead look after the soul, since it is immortal. And therefore, O devout Mary, your spirit rejoices with the angels.

Memorial Hymn

Remember, O Lord, as You are good, Your servant,
And forgive every sin she has committed in this life.
For no one is sinless except You,
Who have power to grant rest to those who have fallen asleep.

Church Hymn (green hymnal page 109)

Blessed are You, O Christ our God; You made the fishermen all-wise by sending down upon them the Holy Spirit, And through them You drew the world into Your net. Glory to You Who love mankind.

Kontakion Mode 2.

O Protection of Christians that never fails, intercession with the Creator that never fails, we sinners beg you, do not ignore the voices of our prayers. O good Lady, we implore you, quickly come unto our aid, when we cry out to you with faith. Hurry to intercession, and hasten to supplication, O Theotokos who protect now and ever those who honor you.

EPISTLE READING: Hebrews 9:11-14

BRETHREN, when Christ appeared as a high priest of the good things that have come, then through the greater and more perfect tent (not made with hands, that is, not of this creation) he entered once for all into the Holy Place, taking not the blood of goats and calves but his own blood, thus securing an eternal redemption. For if the sprinkling of defiled persons with the blood of goats and bulls and with the ashes of a heifer sanctifies for the purification of the flesh, how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify your conscience from dead works to serve the living God.

GOSPEL READING: The Gospel According to Mark 10:32-45

At that time, Jesus took his twelve disciples, and he began to tell them what was to happen to him, saying, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death, and deliver him to the Gentiles; and they will mock him, and spit upon him, and scourge him, and kill him; and after three days he will rise." And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him, and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." And he said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?" And they said to him, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory." But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or to be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" And they said to him, "We are able." And Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared." And when the ten heard it, they began to be indignant of James and John. And Jesus called them to him and said to them, "You know that those who are supposed to rule over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great men exercise authority over them. But it shall not be so among you; but whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of man also came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

To Benefit the IOCC Disaster Relief Fund and the St. Basil Food Pantry at Holy Trinity Cathedral

Since 1992, the IOCC has provided more than $800 million in humanitarian relief and sustainable development programs to people facing hardships Worldwide. Current programs focus on five sectors: emergency preparedness and response; water, sanitation, and hygiene (WASH); sustainable livelihoods; food security and agriculture; and health.

There is an overwhelming need in this era of food insecurity, even in a community such as Carmel. It is with this vision that we have undertaken this endeavor. Therefore, by God's grace our Holy Trinity parish has established a new ministry named the Saint Basil Food Pantry. Proceeds from the outing will allow us to build this food pantry and your generosity will serve our neighbors in the community who are experiencing hunger.

Your support will greatly benefit people in need, both in our community and across the globe.

Join us at Plum Creek Golf Club for an afternoon of golf for two great causes. The event will be a Scramble format and will include lunch, post event awards and buffet as well as a silent auction.

Saint Basil Food Pantry April Challenge

“Let us give thanks to the Lord.”

As we continue through our Lenten journey and gather for the Divine Liturgy, “Let us give thanks to the Lord” and offer to help those in need. During the Divine Liturgy of St. Basil the Great, the offering prayers include the following, “Remember, Lord, those who bear fruit and do good works in Your holy churches, and those who remember the poor. Reward them with Your rich and heavenly gifts. Grant them in return for earthly things, heavenly gifts; for temporal, eternal; for corruptible, incorruptible.”

The goal of this challenge is to collect and offer food items for those in need during the month of April. Please consider donating nonperishable food items or making monetary donations.

You can do so through Realm, contacting the Church office, or by check. If by check, please add “Saint Basil Food Pantry” to the memo line. <https://onrealm.org/holytrinityindy/-/form/give/foodpantry>

As always, thank you for your generosity! Your contributions are going to feed our neighbors in the community who are experiencing daily food shortages.
