VISITORS

We welcome you to worship with us today! Whether you are an Orthodox Christian, or this is your first visit to an Orthodox Church, we are pleased to have you with us. A member of our Welcome Team can assist you and provide you with information about our Cathedral. Please note that food or drink is not permitted in the sanctuary.

Holy Communion in the Orthodox Christian Church is reserved for baptized/chrismated Orthodox Christians who, have properly prepared themselves to receive the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. We receive frequently, but not casually.

All are welcome to come forward at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy to receive the Antidoron, which is blessed bread.

Today's Liturgical Hymns

Ἀπολυτίκιον τοῦ Πάσχα.

Christ is risen from the dead, by death, trampling down upon death, and to those in the tombs He has granted life.

Entrance Hymn

In the churches, bless God the Lord from the springs of Israel. Save us O Son of God, risen from the dead; We sing to You: Alleluia

Resurrectional Apolytikion (green hymnal page 93)

When You descended unto death, O Life Immortal, You rendered to Hades a mortal blow by the lightning of Your divinity, and when from the depths of darkness You also raised the dead, all the heavenly powers cried out: O Giver of Life, Christ our God, glory to You

Apolytikion

The Noble Joseph took your most pure body down from the tree. He wrapped it in clean linen, anointed it with spices, and placed it in a new tomb. But on the third day you rose, O Lord, bestowing on all the world your great mercy.

Another Apolytikion

The angel stood by the tomb and cried out to the myrrh-bearing women: Myrrh would be fitting to anoint the dead, but Christ has shown himself to be free from corruption. Therefore, proclaim that the Lord is risen, bestowing on all the world his great mercy.

Memorial Hymn

Remember, O Lord, as You are good, Your servants, And forgive every sin they have committed in this life.

For no one is sinless except You,

Who have power to grant rest to those who have fallen asleep.

Church Hymn (green hymnal page 109)

Blessed are You, O Christ our God;

You made the fishermen all-wise

By sending down upon them the Holy Spirit,

And through them You drew the world into Your net.

Glory to You Who love mankind.

Kontakion of Pascha. Mode pl. 4.

Though You went down into the tomb, O Immortal One, yet You brought down the dominion of Hades; and You rose as the victor, O Christ our God; and You called out "Rejoice" to the Myrrh-bearing women, and gave peace to Your Apostles, O Lord who to the fallen grant resurrection.

EPISTLE READING: Acts of the Apostles 6:1-7

In those days, when the disciples were increasing in number, the Hellenists murmured against the Hebrews because their widows were neglected in the daily distribution. And the twelve summoned the body of the disciples and said, "it is not right that we should give up preaching the word of God to serve tables. Therefore, brethren, pick out from among you seven men of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint to this duty. But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." And what they said pleased the whole multitude, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochoros, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaos, a proselyte of Antioch. These they set before the apostles, and they prayed and laid their hands upon them. And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests were obedient to the faith.

GOSPEL READING: The Gospel According to Mark 15:43-47; 16:1-8

At that time, Joseph of Arimathea, a respected member of the council, who was also himself looking for the kingdom of God, took courage and went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. And Pilate wondered if he were already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him whether he was already dead. And when he learned from the centurion that he was dead, he granted the body to Joseph. And he bought a linen shroud, and taking him down, wrapped him in the linen shroud, and laid him in a tomb which had been hewn out of the rock; and he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where he was laid.

And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week they went to the tomb when the sun had risen. And they were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the door of the tomb?" And looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back; for it was very large. And entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe; and they were amazed. And he said to them, "Do not be amazed; you seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen, he is not here; see the place where they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him, as he told you." And they went out and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

2. Place the items in the Saint Basil Food Pantry bins (yellow or black) on your way into the Sanctuary for the Divine Services.

The pantry is depleted after each weekly distribution. Whatever you can give will be extremely helpful. In addition, you may also make a monetary contribution if that is your preference and the Saint Basil Food Pantry team will shop for you! You can do so by using Realm \(please click here\). If by check, please add "Saint Basil Food Pantry" to the memo line.

As always, thank you for your love, support, and generosity! Together we are making a difference, and your support is invaluable and your love helps to further drive our mission forward!

Key Highlight (04/01/23 – 05/06/24):

880 families have visited our St. Basil Food Pantry
5,210 people have received food & personal hygiene products
10 partnerships
